One spring wagon, one double harness, one top buggy, one spike tooth harrow, one young 1,500-pound mare. Enquire, Geo. Schow, Lehi.

The Racker Mercantile Co. this week added a lot of new fixtures to their store in the line of plate glass cases, hat racks, etc.

ESMERELDA WED. NIGHT.

Tickets are selling fast for "Esmerelda" to be presented by the High School Dramatic club. Mildred Crabbe as Esmerelda is quite appealing in her wistful simplicity. Dewey Dorton is a very manly country lover. Foster Merrill is a very human old man, sometimes comical, sometimes pathetic; Ruth Knight is quite up to her usual standard in the character of the domineering Mrs. Rogers; Laverde Evans, as Mrs. Desmond, is quite an adept at repartee with her lover Arrel Southwick, as Estabrook; Josephine Merrill is the gentle little sister, Kate; Evans Gilchrist is quite paternal in his role of elder brother; Carl Peterson tries to drive a good bargain but is beaten at his own game; Phillip Hurley seems quite at home as a French Marquis. The young people have worked hard to produce a good play and they deserve the hearty support of the public. Don't forget the time, February second! Don't forget the place, Royal Theatre!

Many notice with amusement that some of the war forecasters are still taking themselves seriously.

Though housework may be deemed fine exercise, so is any other regular occupation when not overdone.

We can all get jobs working for the upbuilding of the community—and the pay is large and certain.

Some of our city farmers think that hay is a cover crop because it is used in some brands of bed quilts.

When one man says another is a crook, and the second one retaliates by saying the first is a crook, we stop and wonder how much of the truth each is telling. To speak ill of another quite often reacts on the speaker.
